Overview

Lose your heart in Zurich

The best reasons for a trip to Zurich:

- Water, water everywhere: a dip in the lake or River Limmat is as much a part of summer in Zurich as a pedalo ride or a balmy evening spent at one of the city's lido bars.
- The Grossmünster towers are part of Zurich's skyline. You can climb to the top of the Karlsturm (Charles Tower) to be rewarded with a magnificent view.
- Visit Zurich and you simply have to try the eponymous veal ragout with rösti. It's best eaten at one of the guildhalls or the famous Kronenhalle restaurant.
- Zurich's picturesque old town, with attractions like the Lindenhof, Schipfe or Niederdorf, reflects the city's 3500-year history.
- The world's most luxurious shopping district is likewise in Zurich. Countless shops, department stores and boutiques line the equally ritzy and expensive Bahnhofstrasse.
- The FIFA World Football Museum is unique and attracts droves of football fans, both young and old.
- Whether it's the Swiss National Museum, the Kunsthaus art museum, the Cabaret Voltaire or the Opera House: Zurich has a top-quality cultural offering to suit any taste.
- The city has Switzerland's largest number of clubs and bars. And Zurich West is particularly popular with nighthawks.
